NEW MEXICO NEWS

R. W. Nourse, of Silver Spring, Md., has been appointed a guard on the Pecos national forest with headquarters at Coyote ranger station.

Thomas Johnson and Mrs. Fannie Richardson, wife of J. W. Richardson, of Elida, were taken from Corona to Roswell by Mounted Policeman Fred Higgins. They were arrested on warrants charging statutory offenses. It is alleged that they left Roswell together some time ago.

The new territorial conservation commission will meet in Santa Fe on July 1, the members being Hon. Solomon Luna of Los Lunas, and Attorneys W. A. Fleming Jones of Las Cruces and A. A. Jones of Las Vegas. The commission will map out important work and also appoint a clerk for whose salary an appropriation is available.

Arrested on the charge of beating his wife, Antonio Love was arraigned before Justice of the Peace Walter at Roswell, who fined him $75 and costs. Wife beating is made a felony by territorial statute, but because it was Love's first appearance in court, the judge was lenient with him. He was warned if it occurred again he would be held to the grand jury.

Basil Conner, a paper carrier in the employ of Carey C. Semmiller at Albuquerque, was painfully bitten by a dog while delivering papers in that city. The animal made a lunge for the boy's head and tore an ugly gash near the right temple, narrowly missing the right eye. The dog was finally driven away and Conner went to his home where his wound was dressed. The dog was killed.

Hon. Solomon Luna, who has arrived in Albuquerque from Magdalena, confirmed the reported sale of his wool clip to D. Hart of Del Rio, Texas. Mr. Luna would not discuss the price paid for the wool, but said it was very satisfactory. The Luna clip is probably the largest individual wool clip in New Mexico and contains about 1,400 sacks. The wool will be shipped next month. While at Magdalena, Mr. Hart, who is a new buyer in the field, purchased a small amount of wool in addition to that bought from Mr. Luna.

The unloaded gun claimed the life of another innocent victim when Earnest Kelly, aged 7, shot and instantly killed his playmate, George Marshall, at Nara Visa Monday of this week. The boys had spent the night at the bachelor home of Ed Kelly and were preparing to go on a wolf hunt with him. The shotgun which was supposed not to be loaded, was behind the door and as Kelly had told the boys he was not going to use the weapon because it was not in condition, they got it out to see what was the matter with it while he was in another room preparing breakfast. The full load struck the Marshall boy in the face, almost tearing off his head.

The case of W. T. Wells, who is charged in the criminal court with killing Ollie W. Shirley about the 10th of March, was continued in the district court at Roswell last Saturday until July 6. The case was to have been heard Monday. It is understood that both the territory and Wells will be ready on the date named, and after the case is once started there is a disposition on the part of both the territory and the defendant to have it completed without delay. Judge Wm. H. Pope will go to Santa Fe on July 1, and will have to be gone about four or five days and it was thought best for a continuance in the case until the 6th, at which time they can then take it up, and push it through.

Governor Curry has decided to call a convention of district attorneys during the session of the supreme court at Santa Fe the latter part of August to discuss with him and Attorney General Frank W. Clancy the better enforcement of the laws, especially the criminal laws, including the Sunday closing, the anti-gambling laws and the laws prohibiting the sale of liquors to minors. Complaints come to him from every part of the territory of the open violation of these latter laws, especially in out-of-the-way settlements. The closer collection of taxes is also to be discussed as several counties are notorious for the small percent of taxes collected, while a few other counties again are very delinquent in assessment matters.

Judge George W. Larremore, a pioneer of the Pecos valley, where he settled in 1880, died at his home in Carlsbad Saturday last, after a long and painful illness due to cancer. The deceased was a native of Arkansas and was aged 60 years at the time of his death. Last fall Judge Larremore announced himself a candidate for probate judge of Eddy county, and his popularity with his home people was shown by the large majority which was given him when the votes were counted, which was the largest ever given a candidate for any office in Eddy county. Last October, cancer of the face developed, and he immediately sought treatment, but with no avail. It stubbornly refused to yield to the most rigorous treatment, and early this spring he underwent an operation which it was thought would check, if not cure the trouble, but such was not the case.

REVIVAL MEETINGS WILL END TONIGHT

A good sized crowd gathered in the armory last night to hear Evangelist Violet speak on the subject, "What Must I Do to Be Saved?"

The discourse set forth in clear and concise terms the Bible plan of pardon. Mr. Violet took up each of the three places in Acts where the question, "What Must I Do to Be Saved?" is asked and showed from the Word of God precisely how men and women became Christians under apostolic preaching.

When the invitation was sung one more came to unite with the church, making forty-three.

These meetings will close tonight. There will be a meeting for the general public at eight o'clock. Mr. Violet's subject will be "The Judgment Day." After this service there will be several baptisms and then a business meeting for both old and new members.

Everyone should hear Mr. Violet in his last evangelistic service in the city. He leaves in the morning for Santa Barbara, Calif., where he will begin another series of meetings.

Rare Washington Portrait.

A rare and curious mezzotint portrait of George Washington in the library of the late Lafayette S. Richardson of Lowell, Mass., was auctioned off last year in Boston. It is entitled "George Washington, late president of the United States of America, etc." and was published March 14, 1801, by J. Hinton Lindon. It is a small folio and is colored by hand. It looks as much like George III. as it does the Father of His Country. Baker, who wrote the "Engraved Portraits of Washington," says that only one impression of this mezzotint has come under the notice of the writer. It was in neither the Clarkson nor the Carson sale of Washington portraits.

Insist on Yellow Flour.

Charles Christodoro, an expert on flour and grains, sounds the keynote of the new situation brought about by the bleached flour decision when he says in a communication to the editor commenting on the bleached flour decision: "The housewife will now insist on yellow tinted or creamy flour, and will learn to realize that a natural flour very white can in no manner compare with the creamy or yellow flour in so far as gluten and muscle building values are concerned." "As from 85 to 90 per cent of the large flour mills of the country were using this bleaching process, the decision is far-reaching."—National Food Magazine.

Protective Device.

When a telephone line is electrostatically charged the telephone acts as a condenser. The winding serves as one plate of the condenser, the frame of the receiver as the dielectric and the person who is holding the receiver to his ear as the other plate of the condenser. In order to prevent this condenser from discharging through the person, a German inventor provides a grounded metallic cover for the receiver, the capacity of which is somewhat greater than that of the body.

Large Catch of Herring.

The east coast herring fishing has been brought to a close and the boats are being rapidly made up and the crews paid off. At Yarmouth and Lowestoft the total catch has been, in round figures, 77,339 lasts, or 1,611,152,000 fish. What the retail value would be is difficult to estimate, but at three a penny—and seldom are they even hawked about the streets at a cheaper rate—the sum works out at £1,404,462.—London News.

Every woman wants the last word, but every woman doesn't get what she wants.

Women Who Are Envied.

Those attractive women who are lovely in face, form and temper are the envy of many, who might be like them. A weak, sickly woman will be nervous and irritable. Constipation or kidney troubles show in pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. For all such, Electric Bitters work wonders. They regulate stomach, liver and kidneys, purify the blood; give strong nerves, bright eyes, pure breath, smooth, velvety skin, lovely complexion. Many charming women owe their health and beauty to them. 50c at all druggists.
